Buda, April 20.

SIR Robert Sutton, Ambaſſadour Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary from His Majeſty of Great Britain, as Mediator for the Treaty of Peace between the Emperour and the Ottoman Porte, arrived here Yeſterday by Water from Vienna. His Excellency was ſaluted with a Diſcharge of our Cannon, and entertained at Dinner by the Baron of Leſſenholtz, our Governour, and this Day proceeded on his Journey by Water towards Belgrade; where Baron Dahlman, the Emperour's ſecond Plenipotentiary for that Treaty, waits his Arrival, and they are from thence to go to Paſſarowitz, the Place of Congreſs.

Conſtantinople, March 20. The Turkiſh Men of War and Gallies that have been fitting out in this Port being now in a Condition to put to Sea, the Horſe Tails have been expoſed as a Signal to the Officers and Seamen to repair to their Poſts. Six Men of War that had been ſent to the Archipelago to fetch Seamen and Ammunition from the ſeveral Turkiſh Ports in thoſe Seas are returned, and have brought with them five Venetian Prizes, and a Veſſel belonging to Malta which they took in their Voyage. The Barbary Squadron, conſiſting of 34 Ships of Force, is ſhortly expected, and when our Fleet has receiv'd that Reinforcement it will ſail for the Archipelago, to encounter the Venetian Fleet. The Aſiatick Troops which are to ſerve in Hungary this Campaign, are all arrived here, to the Number of about 28000 Men, and are forthwith to proceed on their March to join the Turkiſh Army. About 60 Saicks and other Veſſels are getting ready in this Port, to carry a Train of Artillery and Supplies of Ammunition and other Warlike Stores up the Danube for the Uſe of our Troops in Hungary. All the Foreign Miniſters are gone to attend the Sultan at Adrianople, except M. Bonac, the French Ambaſſadour, who waits the Return of a Courier he ſent ſome Time ago to Paris.

Vienna, April 23. The Emperour held a Council the 20th Inſtant, in which the Inſtructions for his Miniſters who are to tranſact the Negotiation for a Peace with the Turks were perfected; and Yeſterday Count Virmond, his Imperial Majeſty's firſt Plenipotentiary for that Treaty, went from hence towards Paſſarowitz. The Cavalier Ruzzini, Ambaſſadour and Plenipotentiary from the Republick of Venice, will ſet out the 25th on his Journey thither. By all our Advices from Turkey the Grand Signior and his Divan ſhew ſo good a Diſpoſition to Peace, that there is all Reaſon to hope that Negotiation will in a ſhort Time be happily concluded.

Stockholm, March 28. Baron Gortz came hither about three Weeks ago, and had ſeveral Conferences with our Governour, to conſult upon the Means of providing Supplies of Corn, which is become very ſcarce in this Kingdom, and among other Methods agreed upon for that Purpoſe, one was to oblige the Merchants of this City to ſend for a certain Quantity from foreign Parts; they were accordingly ſent for by the Governour, and commanded in the King's Name to import 100000 Barrels of Wheat before the End of next Summer, upon Penalty of forfeiting a Rixdollar for every Barrel they ſhall fall ſhort of that Number. They were ordered at the ſame Time to deliver forthwith 6000 Tun of Iron to the Chamber of Negociation for the King's Service, for which they are to take Copper Mint Tokens in Payment. Orders are likewiſe ſent to the Burghers of Gottembourg, upon the like Penalties, to import 50000 Barrels of Corn, and to deliver 5000 Tun of Iron for the King's Uſe. Some Libels having been diſperſed here containing Threats againſt Baron Gortz, as one whoſe Councils have chiefly contributed to the Preſſures under which the People ſuffer, he thought it convenient, during his Stay here, to have a Guard of Soldiers to ſecure him from any Inſult. The King having deſired an Interview with the Princeſs Royal his Siſter, the Duke of Holſtein, and the Hereditary Prince of Heſſe, at Chriſtinahamb, a ſmall Town in the Province of Wermland on the Frontier of Norway; the Prince of Heſſe and the Princeſs accordingly ſet out from hence the 14th Inſtant, in order to repair thither; and they were followed the 18th by the Duke of Holſtein and Baron Gortz. The Sieurs Trobelskoys and Gollowyn, two Muſcovite Generals, who being taken Priſoners of War, have been ſeveral Years under Confinement, are lately brought hither, in order, as is ſaid, to be ſet at Liberty.

Hague, May 6. The States General have notified to the ſeveral Provinces, that the Britiſh and French Miniſters reſiding here have communicated to them a Project of a Treaty for accommodating the Differences between the Emperour and the King of Spain, and acquainted them that their reſpective Maſters deſire the Concurrence of this Republick in their Endeavours to bring this Negotiation to a good Iſſue, the Terms of which are already accepted by the Emperour. The States of the reſpective Provinces have accordingly taken this Matter into Conſideration, and thoſe of Friſeland have already ſent up their Conſent to this State's concurring in the Meaſures propoſed, expreſſing their Senſe of the great Wiſdom and Sagacity of His Britiſh Majeſty and the Regent of France in projecting ſuch Terms as are ſo adapted to the ſeveral Intereſts of the reſpective Powers concerned, that there is no Room to doubt but that as the Emperour has already done, the other Parties will chearfully embrace the Propoſal, and that we may ſoon ſee the Proſpect of a fatal War in Europe changed into that of a ſolid and laſting Peace and Tranquility. The Marquis de Prié is daily expected here to put the laſt Hand to the adjuſting of Matters relating to the Barrier. Baron Friſheim being lately appointed General of the Foot in the Service of this State,
